Profile

Chilean storyboard artist and animator based in the U.S., with a strong sense of visual storytelling and art direction. Experienced in feature films, short films, music videos, and commercial work across international teams. Skilled in crafting compelling storyboards, 2D animation, and visual development using industry-standard tools. Known for clear communication, collaborative workflow, and bringing unique creative ideas to life under tight deadlines. Passionate about storytelling in all its forms—from film and comics to games and animation.
